Fix $i_1, \ldots, i_k$ as in the statement of the problem, and bound the probability of the hypothesis defined by exactly these $k$ examples being consistent but having error greater than $\epsilon$. Then apply the union bound.