Office Hours and Precepts

Email Questions

For those wishing to ask question through email, we encourage you to send email to `cos423@links.princeton.edu`, which will be read by all three of us. This is likely to get you the quickest response as any one of us may be around to read your question. Of course, if you have a question for a specific individual, such as the TA who graded your last homework, then please email that person directly.

Newsgroup Questions

If you have a question of general class interest, you may post the question to the class newsgroup (`pu.cs.423`). However please be careful not to post anything that might give other students "unfair" help in doing their own homework.
